I have no objection to Mr Chabbas proposals which I think may be approved though they would probably be condemned by an influential section of the public on account of Miss Williams' connection with Christian Mission work

2 It is however decidedly objectionable to employ Miss Williams without a distinct understanding as to the terms of her employment.

3 The Madras Mail has come to know of the proposal to employ Miss Williams before it has been sanctioned by Govt, & praises the arrangement as "plucky" - It follows that if Govt do not sanction it they would be dubbed "pusillanimous"!

4 The Dy Govt has given barely three days' time to Govt for a reply - The letter is read only on the last day of this term!

SIR

I have the honour to inform you that to save the large number of masters assembled at Mysore the keen disappointment they would feel if they had to return to their posts without any instruction in Kindergarten methods and principles I have arranged with the kind permission of the Rev D Rees that Miss Williams of the Wesleyan Mission should follow the syllabus of lectures drawn up by Miss Latter, and give the lectures in English that Miss Latter would have given to the English Class of teachers in the Maharani's College She will also arrange for practice in teaching in the Primary Classes of the Maharani's College She is highly qualified for the work having been trained in England and having been the head of a large London County Council School before she joined the Mission She will proceed to Mysore at once and commence work probably from November 25 and so on with it at least to January 10 1908 I request that Government may be pleased to sanction this arrangement

2 There will be at the same time a vernacular class of female and male teachers in the Maharani's College which will be taught by Mr M Venkatasubbaiya

Mr M Venkatasubbaiya B A , L T Assistant Master of the Mysore Normal School who has not only attended all the lectures of Miss Latter but also taught a vernacular class of teachers in Bangalore

3 A second vernacular class of male teachers will be held in the Mysore Normal School This class will be taught by Mr M Hiriyanna M A L T Headmaster of the Mysore Normal School and opportunities for practice will be given to the teachers in the Primary Classes of the Practising School attached to the Normal School under the direction chiefly of Mr M Venkatasubbaiya

4 I shall in due course propose adequate remuneration for the work of Miss Williams and other teachers who will have to do this special work in addition to their usual duties
